

Course listing	Term(s) offered	Contact hours	Art history	Cinema studies	Communication	Film studies	Fine arts	History	International relations	Italian language	Literature	Sociology	Writing
Art History: Between Romanesque and Renaissance, the Centers of Renaissance	Fall semester	45	X					X
Cross-Cultural Communication/Cross-Cultural Perspectives	Fall semester, Spring semester	20			X							X
Dante's Inferno	Fall semester 2014 only	45									X
History of Art and Architecture: The Medieval City-State and the Renaissance Town	Spring semester	45	X					X
Imagining Italy in Anglo-American Literature	Spring semester 2014 only	45
Italian Language Levels 1 through 4	Fall semester, Spring semester	80								X
Italy in the Movies Through the Eyes of American and Italian Masters of Cinema	Spring semester	45		X	X	X
Modern Italy: History and Culture of the Italian People	Fall semester, Spring semester	45						X	X		X	X
Painting: The Italian Experience	Fall semester, Spring semester	50					X
Writing In and About Italy	Fall semester 2014 only	45											X

* All courses are taught in English, unless otherwise noted

 Typically students enroll in 2-3 courses, in addition to the Italian Language and Cross-Cultural Communication courses which are mandatory.

Credit Explanation

Semester: 12-15 credits, Quarter: 14-19 credits

All courses offered in Macerata are recognized and approved for academic credit by AHA partner institutions. Actual credit awarded is determined by the relevant department at your university in consultation with the study abroad office.

Check with your study abroad adviser for more information.